

GOLDSCHMIDT

Smart Rail Solutions

THERMIT® WELDER COURSES

GAIN PRACTICAL HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

IN THERMIT® WELDING PROCESSES

Our comprehensive welder training and affiliated RTO training programs, ensure welding staff are trained and accredited to carry out Original Thermit® welding processes in accordance with the Australian Qualifications Framework. Courses can be carried out at our Somersby Training Centre (Central Coast, NSW) or on the customer's work site.

TRAINING COURSES AVAILABLE

- TLIW3015 – Welding rail using aluminothermic welding processes
- TLIW2012 – Grinding rails
- TLIW3035 – Heat and cut materials using OXY – LPG equipment for the rail industry
- Smartweld Jet technology training and service
- Field assembled Glued Insulated Rail Joints training, installation and service
- Electronic track measuring devices training and service (Railstraight)
- Welder recertification
- Process conversion training

BENEFITS

- Courses can be carried out at our Somersby Training Centre (Central Coast, NSW) or on the customer's work site
- Comprehensive technical advice and after sales service
- On site supervision and welding operations
- Affordable and comprehensive method of staff training
- Ensure welding staff are trained and accredited in all Thermit® processes
- Highest level of competency achieved
- On-going mentoring and monitoring of progress
- Commitment to ensure accredited welders are updated with new developments and latest processes
- On-site product demonstrations

MORE INFORMATION

For more information contact our technical services team technicalservices.ta@goldschmidt.com

